Develop your flute playing skills while learning to play more expressively!

" I signed on for a few of Catherine's summer workshops last year at the urging of my flute teacher. Not sure what to expect, I didn't expect to breathe through cocktail stirrer, or blow party favors, or do rabbit faces before nailing a B flat. All these techniques changed the way I approach the instrument and the notes I am now able to play with more grace, tone and phrasing. Run to this extraordinary teacher. "

-- Kittie Davenport

Being able to work with other students who share my passion for the flute was like no other experience that I have ever had. From articulation to tone, in just a few hours my skill had increased mountains and I know I can say the same for everyone else that took the class.

--Julia Yeh

Flutist and educator Catherine LeGrand is hosting workshops throughout the summer at her Durham studio. Students of ALL skill levels are welcome and encouraged to participate!

LeGrand, a seasoned professional performer and instructor for over 30 years, will devote 4 individual workshops to a variety of topics this summer.

A faculty member at Campbell University, she has performed with the Houston Symphony, is a former principal flutist with the Houston Grand Opera's Texas Opera Theater Orchestra, and has taught hundreds of flutists of all skill levels through her private instruction, masterclasses and workshops. Don't miss this opportunity!
